Promoting Cultural Exchange

Culture, Sports and Tourism Bureau

The Government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China

A nighttime photograph of the Hong Kong skyline. The M+ Museum is in the foreground, displaying a large, colorful graphic of the letters 'M+' on its facade. The background features the dense urban landscape of Hong Kong, with the International Finance Centre (IFC) Tower standing out prominently. The water in the foreground reflects the city lights.

Enhance Cultural Exchanges within GBA

Facilitate Hong Kong's Film and TV Industries to Reach Out to Asia

An art exhibition gallery with white walls displaying numerous colorful, framed paintings. The paintings feature various styles, including portraits, abstracts, and scenes. Several people are viewing the art: a man in a green jacket on the left, a woman in a grey dress in the center, and a man in a grey shirt and jeans on the right. A large black text banner is at the bottom of the wall.
